China is coming into aging society and the elderly will become a large part of society. The project is to design a car for satisfying the living needs of retired people in China around 60 years old.

DUAL MODE CAR
personal mobility

Mode2
Friendly rest space for the elderly and their guests, instead of performing frequent environmental changes for rest.

Get on & Get off
It becomes harder for older people to get on and off the bus when getting older. Deformable seats bring them convenience.
